

Dr Özgür H. Çınar

Associate Professor in law at the University of Greenwich

Dr Özgür H. Çınar is a lawyer. Currently, he is an associate professor in law at the University of Greenwich. He completed his PhD at the School of Law, University of Essex in 2012 on the subject of conscientious objection to military service and the case of Turkey. Previously, he worked in various institutions such as University of Essex and BPP University. He carried out postdoctoral research at the University of Oxford (St Antony's College, Law Department and Kellogg College) between November 2012 and September 2016. He has lots of publications such as Freedom of Religion and Belief in Turkey: Religion, Society and Politics (Palgrave Macmillan, 2021), Introduction to Public Law and Human Rights (TP London, 2021), Introduction to EU Law (TP London, 2021), Introduction to the English Legal System (TP London, 2021), Conscientious Objection to Military Service and Turkey's Obligations under International Human Rights Law (Palgrave MacMillian, 2014), Conscientious Objection to Military Service in International Human Rights Law (Palgrave MacMillan, 2013) and so on. He is also one of the editors of the following books: Freedom of Religion and Belief in Turkey (Cambridge Scholars, 2014), Conscientious Objection: Resisting Militarized Society (Zed Books, 2009) and Çarklardaki Kum: Vicdani Red (İletişim Yayınları, 2008).